SPACE
TO BE YOU.

Workspace to unlock your potential

220 St Vincent Street is located in the heart of the Glasgow's financial district and is a stone's throw from bustling George Square, 5 minutes from the Central Station and 9 minutes from Queen Street station.

Behind the original stone frontage, you'll see that our modern offices aren't just expertly designed, they're well thought-out too. They offer a spacious work environment that delivers more desk space per person than other providers (as well as proper sound proofing), boosting your employees' productivity.

That's not all. Add in fully equipped meeting space, stylish breakout areas, off street parking and flexible terms, and you have the perfect platform for your business' growth.
