GATWICK

THE BEEHIVE BUILDING

THE SPACE

Orega Gatwick is well known as the original Gatwick airport, built in 1936, and the world's first circular terminal building. The Beehive makes a truly unique base for businesses of all sizes. The Art Deco style interior has been well preserved through the ages with original features which remain throughout including the former control tower.

Occupiers benefit from top-quality facilities and amenities, including ample natural light from the open atrium, modern serviced offices, fully equipped meeting rooms, a dynamic interior lighting system and extensive on-site parking.

Orega Gatwick is based at the northern tip of the beautiful county of Sussex, with excellent connections to central London and not to mention close proximity to Gatwick airport.
